Goals of Judicial Council

- Make elections more open, fair, and transparent
 - Protect student interests & hall autonomy
- Work with halls to ensure a smooth process that protects the integrity of the election system
- Clarify any confusion about the process
- Explain differences between old process and new process

Hall Election Coordinator

Responsibilities

- Responsible for ensuring each hall election proceeds according to the guidelines stipulated in the Student Union Constitution and set forth by the Election Committee
- Act as primary liaison between the Judicial Council and the residence halls.
- Hold an information session for the hall regarding hall elections sometime this week.
- Responsible for distributing election information and guidelines to Hall Councils, administer awareness of election rules within hall.
- Work with Hall Council, Rector, etc. on eligibility of candidates
- Approve campaign materials, collect receipts, and ensure spending limit of $50 is not exceeded.

Expectation of Halls

- Open communication with the Judicial Council about the Hall's election process
- Notify the Judicial Council by 3pm on Friday, February 21st if the Hall does not wish to participate in the Judicial Council election process
 - Additional requirements, in the following slide, outline the expectation and information needed in order for Hall's to run elections on their own, like has occurred in the old processes.
- Comply with dates provided in the timeline
 - Notification of ticket policy
 - Providing JCouncil a list of candidate names w/positions

Benefits of JCouncil Election

- Less work from the halls
 - Judicial Council creates ballot, distributes ballot, and tallies the results
 - Halls just need to run petition/eligibility process and provide names to JCouncil
- Transparency, Openness, & Fairness
 - Judicial Council runs elections transparent and consistent across all residence halls
 - Ensures all students have equal opportunity to run for elected office
 - Standardized process across all residence halls
- External Integrity
 - Judicial Council acts as an unbiased administrator of elections
 - Extensive verification process
 - Disputes are handled by an Elections Committee and Ethics Commission, halls do not have to worry about disputes being a resultant of hall action.

Opt-out Option

- If halls feel like they wish to still run elections in the old process, Judicial Council needs to be informed by 3pm on Friday, February 21st.
- Election must occur on or before the approved dates
 - Primary election - Monday, March 2nd
- Provide the following information to Judicial Council
 - Dates of elections
 - Names of winners by March 8th
 - How the voting process will work within the hall (paper ballot, online, etc.)
 - Explain who in the hall will tally/verify the votes
- Must comply with following Student Union Constitutional provisions
 - 17.3(b)(2) explains that the Senator, President, and SUB Rep must reside in the residence hall during the entire term (April 1st, 2020 – March 31st, 2021)
 - 17.3(b)(3) explains that Co-VPs are allowed if they run on a ticket together and serve during opposite semesters
 - 17.3(b)(6) sets the spending limit at $50 for elections
