

Precedent of the Election Committee
Allegation 1920-07

Relevant Facts:

The alleging party made a report via email to the Judicial Council saying that an individual had leaked information relating to another allegation. The Judicial Council investigated this claim.

Holdings:

1. Allegations of disclosing confidential information from the results of a hearing are actionable only if there is evidence to tie the individual who leaked information to a ticket or candidate for office.