

Precedent of the Election Committee

Allegation 2122-03

Relevant Constitutional Sections:

Article XV, Section 1(g)(6): Candidates may not seek an endorsement from or communicate an endorsement such that it can be construed to represent that of a Residence Hall, Student Union Organization, University department, office, or official. [Repealed prior to the filing of this allegation.]

Relevant Facts:

The alleging party accused the alleged party of violating Article XV, Section 1(g)(6), a constitutional provision which no longer existed at the time of the allegation.

Holdings:

1. The Election Committee has no jurisdiction over constitutional sections which have been repealed.